

Locomobile

Touring Cars

Made by the Locomobile Co. of America,
Bridgeport, Conn.

Most automobiles will serve some purposes all of the time. Others will serve all purposes some of the time. But it requires a car like the Locomobile to serve all purposes all of the time. The Locomobile, for eleven years, has been designed to serve all purposes as well as possible. Always ready to go.

Runs all day through deep sand or thick mud, without overheating. Gets there, and gets back.

Simplest and Most Reliable Ignition—Magnet and all apparatus made in the Locomobile Plant. Four speeds. Bronze Engine Bed. Bronze Gear Case. Bronze Steering Wheel.

Opinions of Owners

INTERESTING EXTRACTS FROM LETTERS RECENTLY RECEIVED FROM LOCOMOBILE OWNERS.

"Have run nearly 14,000 miles without any trouble. As good as when it left the factory." Model "E"—1908.

E. C. A., Schenectady, N. Y.

"The best car in the world. Has run 23,500 miles in a year and a half and has never been overhauled. Still runs smoothly." Model "I"—1908.

L. J. M., Pasadena, Cal.

"The car has gone about 30,000 miles and has never gone better than it does at present." Model "E"—1906.

H. H., Albany, N. Y.

"The Locomobile is easily the best built car in the world. Model "E"—1906.

C. A. C., Buffalo, N. Y.

"30,000 miles in one season and never stopped on the road." Model "F"—1905.

C. A. Co., Cambridge, Md.

"Car Model 'H'—1907 has been run about 50,000 miles."

F. W. Fitchburg, Mass.

"My Model 'E'—1906 car is running better than ever. Nothing wears except tires. The car is in daily use winter and summer."

A. E. R., Davenport, Iowa.

"This is the third season. About 34,000 miles; still running fine." Model "E"—1907.

F. W. B., Passaic, N. J.

"I am pleased with car. From June to October, 1908, made 13,020 miles." Model "I"—1908.

R. S. H., Providence, R. I.

"It is without doubt the best car I have ever ridden in. I have ridden in the best cars made, and consider this Locomobile the better car. It has plenty of power, runs with absolutely no noise, and has the best springs of any that I have ever ridden in, and is powerfully built throughout. Model "L"—1909.

F. F. B., Puunene, Maui, T. Hawaii.

"Cannot find a fault. Over 70,000 miles in less than four years, and still doing work as well as one could ask. Am absolutely satisfied." Model "H"—1908.

OVER SEVENTY THOUSAND VOTES CAST FOR SECOND COUNT

Contestants Hold Back Votes

Every Island Has A Favorite Candidates For Chaperone Honors

More than seventy thousand votes were cast in the Bulletin's Popular Voting Contest between Thursday at 4 p. m. and the same time on Saturday of last week.

The second count did not change the leadership as recorded in the first count, but, with one exception, the biggest gains were made by candidates who are not at the top of the voting lists. Miss Pangelinan, District 1, seemingly decided to make a demonstration of power, and sent in a total of thirty thousand votes. Miss Johnson, her nearest rival, increased her total considerably, as did Miss Mary McCabe. There is another candidate in this district who will be heard from vigorously soon.

This count indicates the interest that the people of the outside islands are taking in the contest for the choice of a chaperone, as well as for the trip contestants from the several districts.

Every one of the islands has a favorite candidate that the people think should chaperone the party, and they are beginning to center their support to one of these women in their various districts. Mrs. Stenson of Hilo, second among the candidates for chaperone, is only a few thousand votes behind Mrs. Zeave, and Mrs. Stenson in turn is closely followed by several other candidates, who may be able to secure first or second place in the next count.

The contest in District 2, as in District 1, is by no means a one-sided affair. Hawaii has a good list of good people, and the subscribers in that district are distributing their votes almost equally among them. An average of three letters containing votes for the candidates on Hawaii were received by the Mauna Kea mail.

It can be confidently expected that the third week of the vote issue will make some decided changes in the totals and standing of the candidates on Maui and Kauai. The contestants on these two islands have been holding back over half of their votes, but now that they all know their district opponents, it is a safe assertion that several of them will try and make a showing in the next two counts.

Surprise in District 1.
There is a surprise in store for the leaders in District 1 that is not shown by the past counts, and a candidate who appears to be scarcely in the race declares she will soon make a jump that will place her at or near the top.

All of the contestants are working to lead, and their endeavors are certain to bring results. If you or four friends is near the top of the list, don't stop your vote canvass. Take advantage of the start, and keep up the race with the same enthusiasm.

Just Keep Up the Work.
Likewise there is no reason for any of the candidates to be discouraged. The candidates at the top of the list gained their positions by a few days' fortunate work, and if you keep up your campaign you will be rewarded in the same manner. There is only one time to be so confident of your position that you need not continue your canvass, and that is when the contest is closed. No one can tell the probable leaders until the contest is over, so resolve to keep up your endeavor.

Keep Vote Reserve a Secret.
Don't tell what your vote reserve is to any of the other candidates, and to a very few of your friends. Strategy is required in an affair of this kind, and one of your strategies is secrecy in regard to how many votes you have in reserve. You may depend on it, that the contest manager will not tell, so far as he may know your number of votes from the recorded vote issue.

You will find that he is like a sphinx when it comes to securing from him information about the other candidates.

How Votes Are Issued.
Each copy of the Bulletin will contain a coupon, which, when properly filled out, will entitle the holder to votes of the number specified. This number will vary from day to day. No advance announcement of the number of votes will be given. Votes will also be issued on paid subscriptions to the Evening and Weekly Bulletin in proportion to the length of time such subscriptions are paid in accordance with the schedule appearing below.

How to Help Friend.
If you have a friend in the contest and want to see her win, send in your subscription to the Bulletin and get your friends to do the same. A few subscriptions will place your favorite candidate so high in the count that many who do not know the lady will commence to help her, as they wish to cast their votes for one who, it appears, has a chance to win.

Nominations Not Closed.
There seems to be an impression that nominations are closed forevermore, so far as this contest is concerned. The nominations are not closed, and will not be until the end of the contest. You could, if you wish, nominate a candidate on the last day of the contest.

Separate Ballots.
Remember, separate ballots for the trip and chaperone contestants are now being issued, and you don't have to hold your votes until you make an arrangement with another candidate. You can get the rest at any other time. Send in for your subscriptions. You may hold the votes as long as you wish, but the paper should be started to your friends who have subscribed in your behalf. So send in their subscriptions as soon as you get them.

THE DISTRICTS ARE AS FOLLOWS
District No. 1 includes the City and County of Honolulu.
District No. 2 includes the County of Hawaii.
District No. 3 includes the County of Maui.
District No. 4 includes the County of Kauai.

Don't forget the candidates for chaperone are candidates-at-large. You may take the trip any time you choose, singly or in groups.
